

Robert's Rules of Order Summary Sheet

The Order of Business

1. Approval of minutes, membership reports, and financial reports
 - a. You say: "You have received the minutes of the last meeting/month membership report/month financial report. Are there any corrections to the minutes/reports? [Pause]If there is no objection, the minutes are approved as printed and distributed to the members."
2. Reports of directors, officers, boards and standing committees. If the reports are printed and distributed before the meeting the chair only needs to ask the member presenting their report "Do you have any additions to the report as printed and distributed to the members? If no, Thank you." After verbal reports are given the chair simply says "thank you".
3. Discussion Items
4. Action Items

Main Motions

"The motion" is sometimes referred to as "the question". Both mean basically the same thing.

The motion process involves the following six steps:

1. A member makes a motion.
 - a. Make sure that the motion states exactly what you want the organization to believe or do.
 - b. You Say: I move that..
 - c. Examples of two different kinds of motions:
 - i. "I move that we form a committee to investigate the purchase of a computer."
 1. This motion only allows the committee to investigate the purchase, not to make the purchase.
 - ii. "I move that we form a committee to purchase a computer."
 1. This motion authorizes the committee to purchase the computer.
2. Another member seconds the motion.
3. The chair states the motion, formally placing it before the assembly.
4. The members debate the motion.
 - a. At this point the motion is considered pending. While a motion is pending, members can amend it, postpone it, put it aside, send it to a committee, and so on. If the discussion gets off track, you can ask: "Is there any further discussion on the motion to...".
5. The chair puts the question/motion to a vote.
 - a. To begin, the chair should restate the motion to remind members of the exact issue they will be voting on. You say: "We will now vote on the motion to...".
 - b. The chair should tell members to express their voice vote. You say: "All those in favor say 'Aye'". All opposed say 'No'".
6. The chair announces the results of the vote. This announcement should include the following four elements:
 - a. Which side has the vote: "The affirmative has it" or "The negative has it".
 - b. Whether the motion passed or failed: "The motion is adopted" or "The motion is lost."
 - c. Effect of the vote: "And we will be purchasing a computer", "Our bylaws have been amended" or "Our bylaws have not been amended and will remain as they currently read".
 - d. The next step: "The next business in order will be the report of the finance committee"
 - i. The announcement will sound like: The affirmative has it. The motion to...is adopted and we will be....
